

List of full proposal accepted for funding negotiation – Research Training Partnership Program, Rwanda, 2019-2024

- 1: Integrated agricultural production systems: an obliged path towards one-health, sustainable agriculture and healthy food production
- 6: Engendering rural transformation for sustainable development
- 8: Institutional capacity building for relevant management and economics research of high quality towards sustainable socio-economic transformation of Rwanda
- 9: Strengthening capacity for sustainable bioenergy, waste management and air pollution control in Rwanda
- 11: Enhancing water resources and environmental management (E-WREM) for sustainable livelihood in Rwanda
- 19: Strengthening Research Capacity and Research Training Partnership in Peace, Conflict and Security
- 20: Towards sustainable social development: Strengthening social work education, research and practice in Rwanda
- 29: Strengthening Research Capacity and Expertise in Digital Health
- 31: Infectious Diseases
- 34: Sustainable Health Transformations in Theory and Practice
- 35: Research Capacity Development in Sustainable Energy
- 40: Strengthening Research Capacity in Mathematics, Statistics and Their Applications
- 41: Undernutrition - an interdisciplinary programme focusing on children and their mothers
- 44: Fostering innovation and entrepreneurship for increased relevance of University of Rwanda to the country
- 45: Research Management Support to strengthen the UR strategic and operational research capacities
- 48: University of Rwanda ICT infrastructure and Business Solutions
- 49: Research support to Rwanda through the University of Rwanda Library Services - “Library research support”

FP 46 on Programme Coordination is handled separately. Proposals 1, 8 and 40 are to be scaled down significantly. Details are in the specific comments. PhD students belonging to subprograms that are not going to be funded in the next phase and who will not have graduated by June 2019, will be supported till graduation but for not more than total five years.