

The call for application for Certification Short Courses supported by AFRETEC Project

The University of Rwanda (UR) is a member of African Engineering and Technology Network Universities (AFRETEC) led by Carnegie Mellon University-Africa with other leading universities in Africa (University of Nairobi, The American University in Cairo, University of the Witwatersrand, University of Lagos, Al Akhawayn University, Université Cheikh Anta Diop de Dakar) and Agostinho Neto University (Luanda, Angola) and supported by the Mastercard Foundation. AFRETEC program aims to drive inclusive digital growth through higher education and the power of collaboration.

Through this program, AFRETEC coordination at UR is organizing short courses for future skills in emerging technology fields thus the programme coordination wishes to invite all interested university finalists, graduates, lecturers and other industry professionals to apply for the following fully sponsored short courses to be delivered at the University of Rwanda, CST Nyarugenge Campus:

- AI, Machine Learning and Data Analytics taking place from 4th May 2026 to 29th May 2026
- Cyber security taking place from 4th May 2026 to 29th May 2026
- Web development short course using current frameworks such as Django, Angular, Laravel, React taking place from 4th May 2026 to 29th May 2026

Course Duration

Each of these courses will take place for four weeks with four hours per day.

Applicant Eligibility

The courses are designed for all interested final year undergraduate students/lecturers/graduates in Information Technology/Engineering/ Business Information Technology/Statistics and other related fields.

Application documents

The applicants should submit their CVs and academic documents through the application link

Award

Candidates who will successfully complete each of these courses will be awarded a certificate of participation.

Application process

To apply, please click on the below Google form link and fill it:

<https://forms.gle/N2AFRoNGFzmnhDwdA>

Deadline for application: 1st May 2026

Kindly note that only selected applicants will be contacted.

NB: Female, refugees and people with disabilities are encouraged to apply.

For more information, please contact Dr. Jennifer Batumuliza, Deputy Project Lead and Career Path lead, AFRETEC, University of Rwanda Tel: +250788312697 Email: j.batumuliza@ur.ac.rw

Done at Kigali 21/04/2026

Dr. Pierre Bakunzibake
AFRETEC Project Lead
University of Rwanda

