

ANNOUNCEMENT TO THE STUDENTS OF THE UNIVERSITY OF RWANDA

Schedule of lectures offered through Radio Salus

The University of Rwanda brings to the attention of all its first year students at home now because of the prevention against the COVID-19 pandemic that they are invited to follow academic lectures on Citizenship and Transformative Education that will be offered through Radio Salus, frequencies 97 and 101.9.

The module of Citizenship and Transformative Education is made of four Units subdivided in 17 lessons that will be delivered on the following days and time, starting on 13th May 2020:

Wednesday between 10:00 a.m. and 12:00 a.m. and Thursday evening as rebroadcasting between 09: 00 p.m. and 11: 00 p.m.

Students being now in the locations that are not covered by the waves of Radio Salus will find copies of recorded lessons and other teaching materials on the E-learning platform and the You tube channel of the University of Rwanda.

The concerned students of the University of Rwanda are encouraged to follow the lessons carefully and everyone will be requested to write a summary report containing the main topics of every lesson and their content. Reports will be submitted to lecturers through UR E-learning platform and lecturers will use them to assess the lessons.

For any further clarification please contact us on phone numbers: 0788864677 or 0786816681. You can also use our e-mail addresses: toty.kayumba@gmail.com or rurastra@gmail.com

Done at Huye, 5th May 2020

Dr Straton Rurangirwa
UR Coordinator of Citizenship and Transformative Education module

