OFFICE OF THE PRINCIPAL

ADVERT FOR A POSITION OF AN ENVIRONMENTAL ECONOMIST AT UR-CBE

The College of Business and Economics (CBE) is one of the six colleges of the University of Rwanda. In line with its mission to deliver quality education and develop innovation teaching and research, the UR-CBE- School of Economics is partnering with University of Gothenburg- School of Business, Economics and Law (Sweden) to strengthen institutional sustainability through improved relevance and quality in education and research. More specifically, this partnership aims to (1) improve the quality and relevance of post graduate teaching in the School of Economics (SoE) at UR-CBE, (2) establish a more conducive environment for research and postgraduate training at SoE-CBE, (3) increase the quantity, quality and relevance of research at SoE-CBE, and (4) increase the use of research produced by SoE-CBE faculty in policy making in Rwanda.

In doing so, the University of Gothenburg is assisting the UR-CBE in establishing a Centre for Environmental Economics in the School of Economics. Thus, the University of Rwanda - College of Business and Economics (UR-CBE) is recruiting a regional lecturer who will primarily intervene in setting up the Research Centre. The interesting candidate should meet at least the following criteria:

- PhD holder in environmental economics from a recognized university,
- Strong background in quantitative methods of economics,
- Salient research record in environmental economics,
- Teaching experience at higher education institution,
- Experience in developing research grant applications,
- Willing to intervene in teaching some economics modules,
- Willing to supervise the students' research works, especially at MSc and PhD levels,
- Basic experience in running a research center is an added advantage.
