Mathematics and Science (ACEITLMS)SELECTION AND SCREENING REPORT FOR PHD PROGRAMMES
FOR 2026-2027 ACADEMIC YEAR

The African Centre of Excellence for Innovative Teaching and Learning Mathematics and Science (ACE-ITLMS), hosted at the University of Rwanda College of Education (UR-CE), wishes to inform all applicants that the Ad Hoc Research Committee has completed the rigorous evaluation of application documents for the 2026–2027 academic year across its four internationally accredited PhD by Research in Education programmes (Biology Education, Chemistry Education, Mathematics Education, and Physics Education). Individual application files were systematically audited for document completeness and academic performance against established PhD admission criteria. Below is the summary of the pre-selection report indicating candidates who are shortlisted as eligible for the interview. The interview is scheduled on Monday 24th and Tuesday 25th July 2026 and it will be online. PhD candidates concerned with the interview will be further contacted on the timing of their interview.
