

CALL FOR PAPERS

2nd International Conference on “Re-shaping Education for Sustainable Development”

Conference venue: Kigali Serena Hotel, Rwanda

Dates: 13th-15th May, 2024

Theme: Re-examining Quality Education and Professionalism in the 21st Century

Rationale of the Conference

The world's society in 21st century is experiencing not only deep changes in all the fields of human life but also the realizations that require responsive and innovative strategies to understand and manage these changes. As education is lifelong learning, there is a need to re-examine the current developments in relation to quality education and professionalism in this context of rapid changes. In this regard, the second international conference on Re-shaping Education for Sustainable Development will be organized by the University of Rwanda, College of Education through the Leaders in Teaching (LIT) Initiative Project. Scholars, educational practitioners, and researchers are expected to converge in Kigali, Rwanda, for this noble cause.
