ANNOUNCEMENT

SHORT COURSES TO DEVELOP FRENCH PROFICIENCY

The Centre for Language Enhancement is offering short courses in French to the community both in and outside the University of Rwanda.

The courses are organized according to the Common European Framework of Reference for Languages (CEFR) in order to help learners reach international standards of French Proficiency. In this framework, learners will be trained for different levels: beginner, intermediate, and advanced.

Furthermore, for those who intend to study in member countries of the Francophonie, the centre offer La Préparation au DELF (Diplôme d'Études en Langue Française).

Whether the candidates are willing to study in intensive or extensive way, the centre will plan classes accordingly.
